

I'm where the kid is born,
If Dad can start the car;
With doctors and nurses,
And patients under par.

What am I?

I am the temperature,
Of burners when they're on;
And if the sun is me,
Try shade until it's gone.

What am I?

I start with an 'H',
Four letters are in me;
Think bigger than big,
And then you soon will see.

What am I?
