

I'm where you can go,
To see food prepared;
Where carrots are peeled,
And apples are pared.

What am I?

When someone tells a joke,
A happy sound you make;
If I am done too much,
Your sides will start to ache.

What am I?

Put me back on the jar,
The mayonnaise won't spoil;
Put me on a saucepan;
When stuff starts to boil.

What am I?
